

REPRESSION & RESISTANCE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9TH, SANTA CRUZ

RADICAL PICNIC - WORKSHOPS AND DISCUSSIONS:

Meet 2:00pm at the Beehive house, 315 Walnut Street.

Prisoner Letter Writing 101

The ins and outs, do's and don'ts. Letterwriting is a simple and rewarding activity to lift the spirits of prisoners and express your support.

Dealing with Cops and Feds

A participatory know-your-rights workshop including a series of role-plays. The politically motivated spectrum of cop/agent harassment will be emphasized, while also incorporating everyday police-related scenarios.

Responses to State Repression

A group discussion on strategy. After an overview of the past year's attacks on activists and anarchists, we will ask - How do we want to respond to state repression?

Basic Security

Tips, techniques, and common sense guidelines to protect ourselves from the dark hand of modern repression.

Local Environmental Campaigns

A discussion about eco-destructive development in our local region and how we might oppose it.

FREE DINNER AND MUSICAL PERFORMANCES:

RAUM (Kaczynskian jug band!)
and more spasmodic accordion music

Following the afternoon of workshops and discussions, dinner will be provided by Food Not Bombs, and there will be a free benefit show, also at the Beehive, starting at approximately 7:00pm.
