

GRASSROOTS, NONVIOLENT RESISTANCE TO ISRAELI APARTHEID IN PALESTINE

A Talk in NYC by Feryal Abu Haikal from Tel Rumeida, Hebron & Mohammed Khatib from Bil'in

Feryal Abu Haikal and Mohammed Khatib live in communities that are immediately threatened with destruction and expulsion by the Israeli military and settlers. They will speak of their personal experiences mobilizing their communities to nonviolently resist Israeli violence and discrimination. Largely unreported by the media, thousands of Palestinians and hundreds of Israelis wage a grassroots, nonviolent campaign of resistance to Israel's apartheid system of military occupation and discrimination against Palestinians.

A FARMER IN BIL'IN

MOHAMMED KHATIB is a leading member of Bil'in's Popular Committee Against the Wall. He has been a principal organizer of Bil'in's two-year creative, nonviolent struggle to prevent the construction of Israel's Wall on Bil'in's land and the expansion of illegal Israeli settlements. Bil'in has worked closely with Israeli activists in a "joint, popular struggle." He has frequently been arrested by the Israeli military for organizing nonviolent protests.

A TEACHER IN HEBRON

FERYAL ABU HAIKAL, an educator and a 60 year-old mother of eleven children, recently retired after 11 years as the headmistress at the Qurtuba School in Hebron's old city. The school serves 100 Palestinian children. Some of the most extreme Israeli settlers have taken up residence in Hebron's old city, and they regularly attack Palestinian residents in order to drive them from their homes. Continuing to function despite Israeli attacks, the Qurtuba School has been a model of resistance to Israeli occupation. Feryal and her family also remain in their family home in nearby Tel Rumeida, Hebron despite daily harassment and attacks by Israeli settlers.
