

TWANAS.

THIRD WORLD AND NATIVE AMERICAN STUDENTS PRESS COLLECTIVE 1979

TWANAS is a quarterly student-run publication dedicated to the liberation of third world peoples. With the inaccurate and minimal reporting of ethnic student organizations in current campus media, there is a need for students of color to mobilize collectively to create a space to address important issues that otherwise would not be addressed. We strive to create a publication that demands justice for all peoples and that serves as a vehicle for true unapologetic expression.
