

POVERTY KILLS. HONOR THE DEAD.

Attend the first-ever public eulogy for the more than 25,000 people who die each day from poverty-related causes like malnutrition, malaria, AIDS and tuberculosis.

Featuring REVEREND GLENDA HOPE of Network Ministries, pioneer of eulogies for the homeless, and recognized as an Unsung Hero of Compassion by the Dalai Lama.

Also featuring religious leaders from multiple faiths, citizens from developing countries, and ceremonial music, including RABBI PERETZ WOLF-PRUSAN of Temple Emanu El, IMAM SULEIMAN GALI of the Islamic Society of San Francisco, SISTER CHANDRU DESAI of the Brahma Kumaris Meditation Center, and music from VUKANI MAWETHU.
