Former Colombian Senator and activist, Ingrid Betancourt, tells the story of her six and a half years of captivity in the Colombian jungle. In 2002, while campaigning as a candidate in the Colombian presidential elections, Betancourt was abducted by the FARC and was released in a dramatic 2008 rescue. Join us as she discusses her much-anticipated memoir, Even Silence Has an End: My Six Years of Captivity in the Colombian Jungle.

To learn more about Ingrid Betancourt's political career, kidnapping and rescue, read this 2008 story from the museum's Women, Power and Politics exhibition, Kidnapping a Candidate: Ingrid Betancourt's Six-Year Ordeal.

This special event is presented in partnership with Book Passage. A booksale and signing will follow the program.

Seating is limited. Reserve your tickets now!
