

Occupy Activist Snatched at 4-20 Great Meadow Smoke-In

Isaac Collins was arrested, handcuffed, and jailed by UCSC police April 20th in the Great Meadow around thousands of other marijuana smokers and numerous others selling products He is charged with felony 11359 (possession with intent to sell), punishable by years in prison. In a move which foreshadowed the Oakland PD's new "snatch squad" terror in the May 1st demos there. Are local police agencies developing "snatch squads" as was done May 1st in Oakland against Occupy protests there--that march into large protests and selectively target activists to drag them off? We need answers.

UCSC police ignored thousands of others to seize Collins, also known as the street poet "Lyrical I". He was a front-line supporter of Occupy Santa Cruz last fall. This was the 1st felony arrest at the annual marijuana event in memory. He was held 2 days in jail & finally released. Collins goes to arraignment 8 AM Tuesday May 8th.

Stop Selective Enforcement Against Santa Cruz Activists
