

Labor and Community Unity Rally to Stop Attacks on BART Unions & Members

Where: Fruitvale BART Station, Oakland
When: 11:00 AM Sunday, October 6, 2013

Aug. 1, militant march of 1,000 BART workers and supporters in Oakland.

Fight union busting, stop scabs, demand a good contract for BART workers.

Thousands of other Bay Area workers are working without a contract. BART managers want to provoke a strike when the 60-day “cooling off period” ends and blame it on the transit unions. All out on Oct. 10! BART is threatening to run scab trains and unleash cops to protect strikebreakers and assault workers. We can’t allow this vicious anti-labor attack to prevail in the San Francisco Bay Area, a union stronghold!

Fight the attacks on working people — cut transit fares; restore bus service and all other programs the community needs to survive; good jobs at living wages for all!

Stop the victimization of the black and brown community, especially the police murders of black and brown youth!

Stop letting them play divide and conquer! Come to a labor and community rally to stop the attacks on BART workers, labor, and the community, We’ll rally at Fruitvale BART – where Oscar Grant was murdered by BART police.

California is not Wisconsin! Come to the rally at Fruitvale BART!

The Unity Rally is organized by ATU Local 1555 and endorsed by the San Francisco Labor Council
