

Miami November 2003

Trade ministers from 34 countries meet to plan the Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA would crush the environment, labor rights, and public services throughout the hemisphere

Against capitals prescribed template of paramilitary oppression information warfare and profit above all values

Activists converge in Miami to demonstrate grassroots resistance creative action
and international solidarity

A clash between competing visions of globalization, soon to be known as...
