

Feelin' disrespected at work?

Feel like they see you as a number that relates to their profits?

Instead of the creators of 'their' wealth?

Does it feel like working people have lost respect, power and increasingly

Don't have the jobs - as they ship the best jobs out of the country!

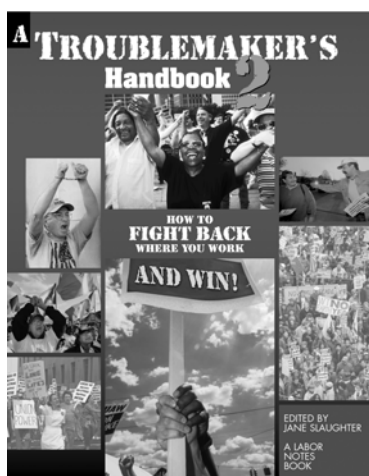

Doesn't it feel like It's Time to Stand Up & Resist?

Join Us As We Celebrate the Timely Release of:
TROUBLEMAKERS HANDBOOK 2
Monday, June 27, 2005
6:30 PM - CWA 9415
1831 Park Blvd - Oakland

We'll be joined by Chris Kutalik. Chris is the Editor of Labor Notes, which produced the Troublemakers Handbook. Chris will be joined by other East Bay Troublemakers, some of whose stories appear in the new book.

The Troublemakers Handbook is a manual for developing workers power in the workplace and in our community. Tons of examples are given with critical lessons from contract campaigns and daily shop floor skirmishes to organizing for Justice in our communities.

"The first Troublemaker's Handbook was the bible of membership mobilization! That's why many CWA locals are now looking forward to using the new and improved Troublemaker's 2 when they plan contract campaigns and other actions. These books are indispensable."

Steve Early
International Representative
CWA District 1