"Evolve or Die" (W. Robinson)

Autolect released a series of projects under the moniker "usephasan" from 1998-2003. Receiving recognition in spots as far away as France, Switzerland and Japan.

Lyricist & Producer William "Hasan" Robinson establishes himself as Autolect. Every Mans Universe unleashes Autolect & his style of music. Urban Sufi Music is an eclectic underground hip-hop inspired by Islamic sound design.

Autolect is a rare bread of artist who produces and writes his own material. Each song soothes the soul with an undeniable aspect that hinges on a dervish drum circle. Frantically obliterated in the oneness of the truth.

Every Mans Universe contains 12 songs and 3 skits. And will mark as Autolect official debut.
