

Justice Rally for the Tran Family!

Tuesday, NOVEMBER 1, 2005
12 Noon

“New” San Jose City Hall
200 E. Santa Clara Street
San Jose, CA 95113

On July 13, 2003, Bich Cau Thi Tran, was shot and killed by a San Jose Police Officer as she stood in her kitchen with a Vietnamese vegetable peeler in her hand. Her family continues to pursue justice in this case through a civil lawsuit. The City of San Jose filed a motion for summary judgment in the case in an attempt to have the case thrown out of court. A judge ruled against the City of San Jose and had rescheduled the trial date to December 2005. Now the City of San Jose has filed an appeal of the judge's decision. This delaying tactic by the City of San Jose may effectively deny the Tran family their day in court for 18 months to 2 years.

The City of San Jose must negotiate in good faith with the attorneys for Tran family and allow justice to be heard by settling the case or agreeing to a trial date in December 2005!!

Attend this rally to protest the delaying tactics by the City of San Jose. Contact the City Council and urge them to settle the lawsuit or allow the case to go to trial this year.
