

Youth & Student Day of Resistance to Imperialism

Stop the War Mar. 20

This is not our war. The Bush administration has sent hundreds of thousands of young people in the armed forces to Iraq to kill and be killed in a war for empire. Iraq has been targeted for destruction by the imperialists because the Iraqi people dared to nationalize their oil and natural resources. Every rationale provided by the Bush administration for the war has been exposed as a lie. Iraq had no WMDs. Iraq had no connection to Sept. 11, 2001.

More than 100,000 Iraqis have died since March 2003. More than 2,000 U.S. soldiers have been killed and thousands horribly wounded. The U.S. government has spent $300 billion to carry out this war of aggression, more than $200 million every day.

While the Bush administration and Congress allocate limitless resources for their war for empire, they are carrying out massive cutbacks in vital social programs. Of the $50 billion in projected cutbacks in the coming fiscal year, more than 1/3 are targeting programs designed to help young people, especially education programs.

The Bush Administration and the Pentagon are having to face the fact they will not prevail in Iraq as planned, yet they plan to widen the war throughout the Middle East. March 20 is a critical time for youth and students take action. Demonstrations will take place around the country and the world.
