

THE LAST NIGHT SANTA CRUZ DIY PARADE

a decentralized,
collective, spontaneous,
open celebration

Want to bring in the New Year with a joyous ruckus of your own creation? Want to march? Dance? Make music? Reclaim the streets?

Come and be a part of the un-organization of this year's Do-It-Yourself New Year's Eve Parade. No one's in charge! Everyone's welcome! Tell your friends!

Sat Dec 2nd 6pm, 132 Kennan St (off Ocean)

How do you make a celebration without permits, cops, city or corporate sponsors, professional event wranglers, scheduled performers, and any money whatsoever? You just do it!
