

Please join us on Sunday, March 30th, for a screening of :

BRAD

one more night at the barricades

When Mexican paramilitary forces shot Brad Will in the chest, killing him, his camera fell from his hands. But it didn't stop recording. It continued moving from hand to hand, telling Brad's story, as well as the story of the movement of movements that he was a part of. From the squats of New York to the forests of Oregon, from the anti-globalization protests in Seattle, Prague, Quebec to the popular uprising in Oaxaca, Brad's camera paints us a picture of what his life was about, and what so many of his friends continue to struggle for.

Showing on March 30th, Sunday, at 8PM.

At: Artists' Television Access - 992 Valencia Street

$6 - part of the money will be to help
