

“Binational Struggles of Mexican Indigenous Migrant Communities: Oaxacan Perspectives.”

Guests
Include:

Centolia Maldonado Vásquez

Binational Advisor, Economic Development Director and District Coordinator

Bernardo Ramírez Bautista

Mixteca Region Coordinator and Legal Advocacy Program Director

Friday, April 25

1:00pm-3:00pm

Reception to follow 3:30pm

Cervantes and Velasquez Rm D

Bay Tree Building (3rd floor above book store)

University of California, Santa Cruz

The public is invited to a presentation on:

- The current political situation in Oaxaca
- Indigenous Mexican migration to the U.S. and its impact in the communities of origin
- The role of women in the movement for social justice in Oaxaca
- Current challenges of indigenous governing community institutions in Oaxaca

Film Screening:

Mujeres que se Organizan, Avanzan

“Women Who Organize Make Progress”

Translation into English will be provided

For more information or accommodations contact the CLRC at 831-459-3789 clrc@ucsc.edu

Sponsors: Chicano/Latino Research Center, El Centro: Chicano Latino Resource Center, Latin American and Latino Studies, Anthropology, Kresge College, Oakes College, Colleges Nine and Ten and Merrill College