Speak in S.F. on May 18!

Fundraiser for "Power to the People" Presidential Campaign

Cynthia McKinney at 2008 May Day march & rally with ILWU

Cynthia McKinney, former Congresswoman from Georgia and current presidential candidate of the Power to the People coalition, will be in San Francisco on Sunday, May 18, where she will be speaking at a forum to demand freedom for Mumia Abu-Jamal [see box below].

At 6 p.m. -- following the Mumia Forum -- Sister McKinney will be at the Brava Theater Studio in San Francisco's Mission District (2781 - 24th Street, between Florida and Treat) at a fundraising event for her campaign. She will give a presentation and answer questions from her Bay Area supporters.

Please join us at this important gathering -- and please make sure you bring your checkbook with you. We'd like to raise a considerable amount of money for her campaign. (For more information about her campaign, please go to <http://www.allthingscynthiamckinney.org>.)

If you cannot join us at the Brava Theater, you can still make a contribution toward our effort. Please go to Cynthia McKinney's campaign website (<http://www.runcynthiarun.org>) and make your donation via PayPal. You can also send your check or money order to Power to the People, P.O. Box 311759, Atlanta, GA 31131-1759.

Sister McKinney's Power to the People campaign needs your support, urgently. We are looking forward to seeing you at the Brava Theater Studio in San Francisco on Sunday, May 18 at 6 p.m.

For more information on this Fundraiser, or if you would like to help the Power to the People campaign, please call 415-641-8616.
