

Middle East Conflict at 60: What Palestinians are fighting for

The Israeli government and its U.S. supporters cite "security" as the reason for the West Bank barrier restricting Palestinian access to Israeli population centers. Yet more walls are being built dividing Palestinian from Palestinian. Israeli settlements continue to be built and expanded on the Palestinian side of the wall. The number of military checkpoints and closures has risen to some 550 inside the West Bank. What are the real reasons for these measures? Why do Israeli policies make a two-state solution all but impossible? How can peace be achieved?

Sharat G. Lin explains with photos, maps, and first-hand experiences.

Sharat G. Lin, PhD is with the San José Peace & Justice Center. He writes on global political economy, the Middle East, India, and labor migration.

Wednesday, July 16, 6:30 PM
Campbell Library, Community Room
77 Harrison Avenue (at Civic Center Drive), Campbell

Admission: Free
Wheelchair accessible

Sponsored by the San Jose Peace and Justice Center
www.SanJosePeace.org (408) 297-2299

Endorsed by South Bay Mobilization (www.sbm4peace.org)