

TEND SOME TREAD

REBUILD THE SEQUOIA TRAIL WITH V•O•CAL

Volunteers
for Outdoor California

Big Basin State Park

Friday September 26 -
Sunday September 28

Join REI, the Big Basin Volunteer Trail Crew, California State Parks and Volunteers for Outdoor California for a weekend trail maintenance project at Big Basin Redwoods State Park, nine miles north of Boulder Creek in the Santa Cruz Mountains. We'll work on the Sequoia Trail near the entrance to the park, rerouting several sections and installing interlocking steps on a particularly steep segment.

What YOU get:

Free Food

Free Camping

On-Site Training

Meet New People

Project T-Shirt

A Great Workout

A Sense of Accomplishment

Breakfast at 7am, work starts at 8am Saturday morning.

Sign Up Today!

No experience necessary!
All training and equipment provided!
Free entry to Big Basin SP!
Ages 14 and over
(under 18 with adult supervision).

Register online at www.v-o-cal.org.

More info online, or call (650) 298-9774.

Advanced registration is required. Participants must arrive by 8am to prepare lunch, sign waivers, and attend safety meetings.

V•O•CAL

Volunteers
for Outdoor California

