

Peace and Dignity Journey 2008

Movie Night Fundraiser

Saturday, November 8 || 6:30-9PM

Chicana Perk 129 25th St

Three videos from the Northern route filmed by runners from San Diego will be shown, giving the indigenous perspective on the sacred journey and describing the struggles and triumphs of indigenous communities in their own words. PLUS: Slideshow and stories from the Southern route. Videos in english with spanish subtitles.

Come out to support our compañeros from San Diego: Abel, Arturo, Gaby, Oscar and Ymoat!

Peace and Dignity Journeys is a spiritual journey held every four years to unite indigenous peoples and strengthen indigenous culture. Runners start in Tierra del Fuego and Alaska, proceed through hundreds of indigenous communities, and meet at the Panama Canal. This year's journey is dedicated to Sacred Sites, hundreds of which are being threatened with development or resource exploitation.
