JUSTICE FOR OSCAR GRANT

Fighting Racism in Obama's America

7pm Wednesday, March 25th
110 Capp St. San Francisco between 16th and 17th on Capp, near the 16th St. BART station

In front of dozens of witnesses, and captured on video, BART cop Johannes Mehserle shot 22 year old Oscar Grant III while he was lying face down on the platform of the Fruitvale BART station in the early morning of January 1. There have been protests of police shootings in the recent past, but none have matched the scale and effectiveness of those surrounding the shooting of Oscar Grant. In the face of this movement, growing in both size and anger, officer Mehserle was arrested on January 13th. But with Mehserle now out on bail, the fight for justice continues.

What will the impact of having our first Black president have on the outrageous history of police brutality in this country? The criminal justice system is in an ideological and economic crisis. In this new political period we can organize with the confidence that we can make change and win justice for Oscar Grant and countless others who have been brutalized by this system.

Come to a forum on how we can win justice for Oscar and build a new Civil Rights Movement
