

THE PEOPLE VS. MEHSERLE:

(a.k.a. How to Put A Cop Behind Bars for Murder)

THE TEACH IN YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS

Sunday, May 17, 2009, 1-4pm
Humanist Hall
390-27th Street, Oakland, CA 94612
(between Broadway & Telegraph)

Since the massive protests against the New Year's killing of Oscar Grant, the community has had one clear objective: putting former BART cop Johannes Mehserle in prison for the cold-blooded execution of our fellow community member, friend, worker & family member.

- Let's educate ourselves about the legal issues involved in the criminal trial set to begin with a preliminary hearing on May 18, 2009 at the Alameda County Superior Court.
- Let's educate each other about the political implications involved in this case – AND
- Let's mobilize our families, friends, co-workers, neighbors and communities to show up at the Alameda County Court-house to demand Mehserle's conviction for murdering Oscar Grant on May 18, 2009.
