

REAL DEAL or NO DEAL

It takes a village...

to raise our children
to support our seniors
to house our neighbors
to prevent domestic violence
to give dignity to our veterans to fight for our communities

When the U.S. ran up against the Great Depression—the worst economic catastrophe it had ever seen—our society survived by investing in our people, creating the programs that led to the subsidized housing, SSI, and food programs that we know today.

Join us to push San Francisco's government to make the right choices in hard economic times, and to invest in the future of all San Franciscans.
