

Pastors for Peace 20th Friendshipment Caravan to Cuba

Welcome the Caravan to San Jose!

Sunday, July 12th, 5-7 pm
San Jose Peace & Justice Center
48 S. 7th Street, San Jose

An afternoon of food, live Cuban music, and discussion about Cuba

Music will be provided by Chilean musician Rafael Manriquez, one of the leading exponents of Latin American music in the San Francisco Bay Area for over 20 years.

Alicia Jrapko will speak about the Cuba Caravan and the campaign against the U.S. blockade and travel ban on Cuba. Martha Acevedo will say a few words about her decades of struggle through activism and family connections against the stifling blockade.

Potluck dinner -- please consider bringing a food item.

This event is a fundraiser for the Cuba Caravan. Donations greatly appreciated!

Sponsored by San Jose Peace & Justice Center, MEChA, MAIZ, South Bay ANSWER, South Bay Mobilization, and SJ-Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

15 different routes will visit more than 130 US and Canadian cities. The Caravan will travel in school buses, trucks, and cars to Cuba via Mexico with construction, medical and educational supplies collected from groups across the US and Canada as a collective challenge to the US blockade and travel ban on Cuba. Join us as a vehicle passes through San Jose on Sunday, July 12th at San Jose Peace & Justice Center, from 5-7 pm. For more information: www.sanjosepeace.org, sjpsc@sanjosepeace.org, 408-297-2299
