

A woman among warlords

Story of an Afghan woman who raised her voice

Malalai Joya has been called the bravest woman in Afghanistan. Elected to the Afghan parliament in 2003 & 2005, she was suspended in 2007 for challenging the presence of warlords in the Afghan parliament. She has been compared to the symbol of Burma's democracy movement, Aung San Suu Kyi

Malalai Joya will release and sign her memoir: "A Woman Among Warlords: The Extraordinary Story of an Afghan Who Dared to Raise Her Voice"

Saturday Nov 7th, 3:45 PM

San Jose State University

Engineering Auditorium

Near the campus entrance at South 7th street & San Fernando

Parking at the garage of 4th street and San Fernando

Book signing after the talk

Free admission! Donations welcome to cover the costs

Sponsored by: Culture & Conflict Forum, Middle East Studies (SJSU), Students Association for Middle East Studies (SJSU), South Bay Mobilization

contact@cultureandconflict.com 408 677-9137