Journalist JR Valrey was arrested by Oakland Police on the night of January 7th, 2009, for covering the street uprising following the police murder of Oscar Grant. JR has consistently covered police brutality and terrorism. The bogus charge he faces: felony arson! JR is accused of starting a fire in a barrel on the street, but he had no fire-making equipment (no matches, no lighter, etc) at the time. He was working as a journalist, covering the protests over the murder of Oscar Grant--and this is what the police are persecuting him for.

JR Valrey is POCC Minister of Information, host of Block Report Radio, a producer of Flashpoints at KPFA, and associate editor of the SF Bay View Newspaper

Co-defendant Holly Works, another victim of the police attacks on the protesters of Oscar Grant's murder, has her hearing one week later, on Monday December 14th, at the same court. Defend Holly Works, 8 AM, 14 December 2009, 1225 Fallon in Oakland.

Protest the Police Murder of Oscar Grant!

The BART cop who put a bullet in the back of the young Oscar Grant--while Grant was lying face down on a BART platform--is Johannes Mehserle. With 45 police killings in Oakland in the past 5 years, Mehserle is the only cop to be charged with murder while on duty. But the cops are pulling out all the stops to avoid a conviction. With a starkly racist argument, Meshserle's lawyer has succeeded in getting the trial moved out of Oakland!
