

4th Annual Global Health Conference

“Providing Health Care for Politically and Socially Marginalized Groups”

H. Fisher Raymond, MPH, DrPH(c)
“Gay and Bisexual men in the developing world: A tale of two countries”

Alberto Perez-Rendon, MD, MPH
“Strategies for Providing Medical Services to U.S. Immigrants”

Jennifer Aengst, M.A, PhD(c)
“Moral Campaigns, Pronatalism, & Stigma: The Provision of Reproductive Healthcare in Ladakh, India”

Joshua To, co-founder BRUTE LABS
“WellDone: Well Digging for Drinking Water in Africa”

When: Tuesday April 6, 2010 from 6:00-8:30pm
Where: SJSU, Engineering Building Auditorium (Eng. 189)

First 75 Attendees Receive a FREE Global Health T-SHIRT
REFRESHMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED!

Jennifer Aengst
Himalayan researcher and an academic focusing on reproduction, Jennifer developed Women for Women's Health, a reproductive health education program in Ladakh, India.

Joshua To
As a social entrepreneur focused on the power of design and technology to drive change in the world, Josh founded BRUTE LABS, a volunteer-run non-profit organization. Josh has also served as a Business Development consultant for Google.org.

Henry Fisher Raymond
Director of Bio-Behavioral Surveillance at the San Francisco Department of Public Health, he also provides technical assistance in MSM interventions to the CDC's Global AIDS Program and the Gates Foundation in China.

Alberto Perez Rendon
Co-founder of Asociacion Mayab, an organization that provides social and prevention services to Maya immigrants in the Bay Area, Alberto works closely with Indigenous immigrant populations to improve health care access.

