

Don't push out our community

Say no to the injunction

Say no to racial profiling

The City Attorney has filed a "Gang injunction" against up to 70 people in North Oakland. It makes non-criminal activity of targeted people illegal: hanging out with friends, being out past 10pm, or wearing certain clothing. It allows racial profiling and increased harassment based on what you look like and/or what tattoos you have. It takes away the right of those listed to due process before being charged with a crime, and doesn't notify 90% of the people targeted.

This attack on civil rights will mean more harassment of our youth, and the displacement of working class people of color through rapidly increasing real estate prices. During a time when Oakland schools are closing and vital services are being cut, the city is proposing spending $400,000 to further criminalize our youth. The money should be going into things that will make our neighborhoods safer, like good schools, health care, jobs, and affordable housing.

Let's use what we have in our neighborhood: strong families, organizations, and people!

It's not too late!
