

Solidarity vs. Racism

A public meeting on racism in the US today and strategies for fighting it

In the midst of a deepening economic crisis, the Tea Party and the American right-wing have unleashed a revived campaign of racism - from the Islamophobic hysteria against the Park51 mosque in Manhattan, to the scapegoating assault on Latino immigrants through Arizona's SB1070, to the smear campaign and firing of Shirley Sherrod.

If you are angry that racism still exists and want a serious discussion of why it does, and what you can do to help fight it - come to this public meeting.

7pm Wednesday, Sept 15
Redstone Building, 2940 16th St.,
2nd floor, Luna Sea Room,
(1/2 block from 16th Street BART)
San Francisco
