

The Call from Wisconsin: FIGHT BACK, TEACH IN!

April 5th, 2011

A NATIONAL TEACH-IN

On Austerity, Debt, Corporate Greed (and What YOU Can Do About It)

11:00 am to 1:30 pm

Live Stream from the historic
Judson Memorial Church, New York City

Moderated by:

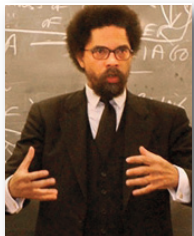

Frances Fox Piven and Cornel West

Featuring:

Jeffrey Sachs, Heather McGhee, and Richard Trumka

Followed by a discussion moderated by:

Ken Jacobs, Chair, UC Berkeley Labor Center

Location:

UC Berkeley Labor Center

2521 Channing Way, Berkeley CA, 94720-5555

Sponsored by:

American Rights at Work

Coffee will be provided; feel free to bring your lunch.

Wall Street banks, American corporations and their political allies have declared a one-sided war on the American people—at our schools and colleges, on public employee unions, in our workplaces and communities. The courageous actions by the citizens in Wisconsin are an inspiring defense of the core values of this country: a civil society based on freedom of association, healthy and stable communities that value public services and the public good.

Link to national teach-in:

<http://www.fightbackteachin.org/>

Link to April 4th/week of action:

<http://www.we-r-1.org/>

