

Seed Saving Class: “Super Easy”

---

Thursday, July 14th, 2011
7pm - 8:30pm

Join Rebecca Newburn of Richmond Grows for an evening of seed saving basics, including some hands-on practice. No previous seed saving experience needed. Learn the basic vocabulary of seed saving and how to save seeds from the sunflower, pea, and nightshade families. You'll also learn how to return seeds “borrowed” from local seed lending libraries to help create a sustainable community and seed library.

In addition to Richmond Grows, which is a seed lending library at the Richmond Public Library, the Ecology Center also hosts a community supported seed library as a part of the Bay Area Seed Interchange Library (B.A.S.I.L), which is open to the public.

---

Cost: $5 - $15 sliding scale, no one turned away for lack of funds.

Pre-registration ensures a spot in the class: register@ecologycenter.org or <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/185193>

Location: Ecology Center, 2530 San Pablo Avenue (near Dwight Way), Berkeley Wheelchair Accessible

Contact: 510-548-2220 x239

