

Fair Food

from seed to table

A SERIES IN CELEBRATION OF FOOD DAY

Tuesday,
October 4

Thursday,
October 20

Saturday,
October 22

Monday,
October 24

Monday,
October 24

Advanced Seed Saving for Farmers and Gardeners

Learn more about seed and connect with other seed savers. Jared Zystro of Organic Seed Alliance will cover planting, storing and everything in between.

6:30pm - 8:30pm
at Ecology Center

Fair Food from the Field to the Table

Through the stories and voices of farmworkers, growers, businesses, and fair food advocates, come learn about the realities of farmworker conditions and the promise of improved farm labor practices in American agriculture.

7pm - 9pm
at Ecology Center

Composting for Renters

We'll cover common dilemmas that renters face and discover solutions for composting with limited space. Free. Pre-registration ensures a spot.

10am - Noon
EcoHouse

Farm Tour: Visit Farms of the Ecology Center Farmers' Markets

Join us for a visit to two farms in Petaluma that make the Ecology Center markets so special. Open to current EC members only. Registration required.

9:45am - 5:30pm

Let's Eat Real
Join in with events taking place nationwide for an all-inclusive conversation about the way we produce, consume, and think about food.

Find events at
foodday.org

For more information contact

Ecology Center, 2530 San Pablo, Berkeley • 510-548-2220 x233 • erc@ecologycenter.org
ecologycenter.org