

In a time of economic crisis, austerity, budget cuts, and political repression people are beginning to fight back.

THE GLOBAL YOUTH REVOLT

MARCH 13TH
TUESDAY 6PM
St. Mary's College
DRYDEN HALL

All over the world, the governments and corporations are using the economic crisis to pass austerity measures and budget cuts. Access to a decent public education is all but destroyed. Those that get a higher education face decades of debt.

However, youth all over the world are fighting back. From Egypt to Greece; England to Chile; from New York to California students are fighting back.

United with workers and the oppressed, students and youth can help struggle for world change

Join us for a meeting and discussion about the growing struggle for education and an alternative world.
