Precarious & Service Workers Assembly

- Unemployed • Underemployed • Unpaid
- Domestic Workers • Independent Contractors
- Service Workers • Temp Workers • Students
- Hustlers • Seasonal • Disposable • Disgruntled

Wednesday, March 21st

3 pm

19th and Telegraph
Oakland

For many people these days, our work is defined by its precarity. We lack job security, work for laughable wages, and have no health care or potential for advancement. Even for those of us who do have these privileges, austerity measures and budget cuts can quickly take away the funding for our jobs — we are all potentially without a way to provide for ourselves or our loved ones. Come meet to network and discuss how we can help each other improve our immediate situations. Work fucking sucks and we all know it, so let's do something about it!

Solidarity and support among various kinds of workers can be empowering for all of us. Remember, they can't run these places without us. Bosses thrive by pitting us against one another, but if not for us, Management wouldn't make a dime. Let's take what's ours! Bring some goods to share from your place of employment if you'd like, and feel free to bring a friend or two — as long as they're not the boss!
