

!HONDURAS RESISTE!

Report Back on Organizing in the Aguan

with Laura Jung of SOAWatch

WHERE: 518 Valencia – Eric Quezada
Center for Culture & Politics,
San Francisco, CA 94110
(at 16th Street and Valencia)

WHEN: Friday March 30th, 2012
at 7 pm

Presented by: School of the Americas
Watch- San Francisco, and Bay Area
Latin America Solidarity Coalition.

Accesible to all. Suggested donation: $5 to $10, no one turned away for lack of funds. Light refreshments served.

CONTACT: tmcameranesi@gmail.com

Laura Jung - School of the Americas Watch Operations & Development Coordinator

Laura joined the SOA Watch staff from Chicago, where she earned a MA in International Studies at DePaul University. Laura has her finger on the pulse of Central America and is very involved with Garifuna, indigenous, and campesino struggles in Honduras. Laura has worked in Honduras since 2005 and regularly attends academic conferences to present her research on social movements, political economy, and security issues in Honduras. She speaks fluent Spanish, and is determined to learn Garifuna as well.