

Africa's Future in African Hands Tour

*In Sierra Leone, 1 out of every 8 mothers dies during childbirth.
...Nurse-Midwife Mary Koroma is changing that. You can be part of it.*

Wed, April 18, 2012 • 6:30 pm • 6501 Telegraph Ave, Oakland

Thurs, April 19, 2012 • 6:30 pm • 7911 MacArthur, Oakland

Sat, April 21, Bay Area Birth Justice Fair • 10am-4pm • 7911 MacArthur, Oakland

Events in Oakland: Wed, April 18, 2012 • 6:30 pm

Niebyl Proctor Library, 6501 Telegraph Ave

Thurs, April 19, 2012 • 6:30 pm

Uhuru House, 7911 MacArthur Blvd

Hear Nurse Mary's personal testimony and vision for the sustainable development of Africa through

African self-reliance and self-determination.

This is an opportunity to join in solidarity with Africa's Future in African Hands.

Nurse-Midwife Mary Koroma

Nurse-Midwife Mary Koroma has dedicated her life to saving the lives of mothers and babies in her native Sierra Leone.

- Director of the All African People's Development and Empowerment Project (AAPDEP) in Sierra Leone, leader of the Infant and Maternal Health Project with over 500 members
- Built four multi-acre vegetable farms; boat building and fishing project; skills training center; nursery school; health and birth clinic
- Newly established nursing school graduated first class in 2011

Sat, April 21
Bay Area

Birth Justice
Health and Wellness
Information Fair

In support of the Africa's Future in African Hands tour and building health and wellness programs for the African community of East Oakland.

10am to 4pm at the Uhuru House,
7911 MacArthur Blvd, Oakland

www.bayareabirthjusticefair.wordpress.com