

The Social Justice Committee of the Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian-Universalists is pleased to sponsor and invite you to a poetry reading and book signing featuring

Brooklyn rad poet
Mitchel Cohen

Mitchel is the chair of the WBAI Local Station Board, author of 2 highly regarded books of poems, Coordinator of the No Spray Coalition against toxic pesticides, and a member of the Brooklyn Greens/Green Party.

Wednesday, August 22nd

doors open at 6 pm
(for socializing & lite
food and drink)

reading begins at 7 pm

1924 Cedar St.

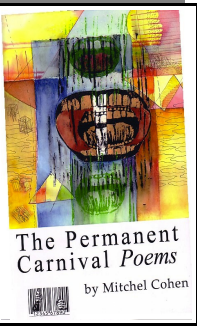

corner of Cedar & Bonita in North Berkeley.

Free.

Bring musical instruments, a poem, song, short story of your own, & food & drink to share.

Wheelchair accessible.

Books available from www.mitchelcohen.com

Wednesday, August 22nd

doors open at 6 pm
(for socializing & lite
food and drink)

reading begins at 7 pm

1924 Cedar St.

corner of Cedar & Bonita in North Berkeley.

Free.

Bring musical instruments, a poem, song, short story of your own, & food & drink to share.

Wheelchair accessible.

Books available from www.mitchelcohen.com

