The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is the world's largest voluntary health agency dedicated to blood cancer. The LLS mission: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services. Founded in 1949 and headquartered in White Plains, NY, LLS has chapters throughout the United States and Canada. lls.org

The Cancer Prevention Institute of California

The Cancer Prevention Institute of California (CPIC) is California's leading independent, population-based research organization. Our mission is to prevent cancer and reduce its burden where it cannot yet be prevented. CPIC scientists conduct ground-breaking research to understand the causes of cancer, find ways to prevent it and detect it early, and improve care for cancer survivors. CPIC also provides education programs, publications and websites to address the many issues of cancer and its impact on patients, families and friends. cpic.org
