Iyad Burnat is head of the Bil'in Popular Committee and a leader in the village's non-violent popular resistance movement. Since 2005 citizens of Bil'in have held weekly demonstrations against the building of the Israeli separation wall through the community's agricultural lands, and the steady encroachment of illegal settlements.

During his 2012-2013 American tour, Iyad will tell the stories of Bil'in and life in occupied Palestine, and talk about strategies for non-violent popular resistance with a goal of peace and prosperity for all people. Photos and videos accompany his presentations.
