

A FILM BY BETH STEPHENS WITH ANNIE SPRINKLE

Goodbye Gauley Mountain

AN ECOSEXUAL LOVE STORY

You Are Invited to a Film Benefit

Savor a Special Appalachian Dinner

Enjoy an Ecosex Show and Tell by Beth and Annie

Experience a Sneak Preview of what Earth First News has called, "without compare, the sexiest nature documentary and one of the most profound films to deal with the beauty and tragedy of the Appalachian Mountains in the Age of King Coal."

Saturday, March 30, 2013

Center for Sex and Culture, 1349 Mission St. San Francisco, CA 94103
(between 9th & 10th)

6:30pm Appalachian Dinner (tickets for dinner must be purchased by March 27th)

7:30pm Show and Tell

8:00pm Sneak Preview Screening (Sliding scale tickets available for Show and Tell and Sneak Preview. Tickets are also available at the door)

Get your tickets: <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/344425>

More information: <http://goodbyegauleymountain.org/screenings/>

