

NSA Surveillance and US

What We Know and What We Can Do About It

A free, interactive workshop for those who are, or want to become, active in restoring our constitutional rights

Sunday, August 18, 3:45 - 6 PM

Martin Luther King Rm., Unitarian-Universalist Center, 1187 Franklin St., San Francisco

This workshop will feature short presentations about NSA surveillance by attorneys and organizers, followed by breakout groups meeting to plan actions, write materials, and network. The goal is to define common goals and propose strategies for ending blanket surveillance of our phone records and electronic communications. A statement of support for NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden will be available for your signature.

Hosted by Unitarian Universalists for Peace-SF and the SF 99% Coalition
