

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

The Battle of Moscow

The Germany led multiple country massive invasion of the Soviet Union that began on June 21, 1941 was stopped at the outskirts of Moscow. We will show the film. "Battle of Moscow: The End of the Road." Afterwards discussion will be lead by John Murcko and Raj Sahai on strategy and tactics of the military battle, the protection of the motherland, mobilization of the troops, the workers of Moscow and the party resulting in the first defeat of German General Guderian and the Nazi army. Come and learn about the revolutionary military-industrial-political strategy used by the communist party of the USSR to defeat the Third Reich.

Sunday, February 9, 2014

10:30 am to 12:30 pm

6501 Telegraph Avenue in Oakland
(between Alcatraz and 66th)

Seating is limited, so plan to come early. We start promptly.
FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to NPML

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.

Info: Gene Ruyle at 510-428-1578 or cuyleruyle@mac.com

To subscribe to our weekly announcements, email cuyleruyle@mac.com