AN EVENING with TOM AMMIANO

He's Back from Sacramento and He's Going to Tell Us What He Thinks!

A holiday celebration with political humor, refreshments and reflections on the past year

After the political gloom of November, it's time to greet the holidays with some lighthearted political seriousness from our "retiring" Assembly member Tom Ammiano. Tom may offer reflections on his recent tour of duty in Sacramento, some perspective on the terrible times to come, and, if we're lucky, a preview of his new comedy routine.

Assemblymember Tom Ammiano was the first public school teacher in San Francisco to make his sexual orientation a matter of public knowledge. In 1990 Tom was elected to the San Francisco School Board, where he served as President. Ten years later he joined the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, where he also served as President; he was elected to the State Assembly in 2008. He leaves the legislature at the end of this year as a result of term limits.
