Eastwind Books of Berkeley has been serving the Eastbay providing books on Asian American diverse cultures, history, and literature since 1996. Soon to be celebrating twenty years, our management brings to the bookstore a history of activism for Ethnic Studies during the 1968-1969 Bay Area Third World Liberation Front Strikes. Eastwind Books of Berkeley's theme of community bookstore was inspired by the 1970 Everybody's Bookstore in San Francisco Chinatown-Manilatown International Hotel movement. Please come and support this unique bookstore. Visit our website at www.asiabookcenter.com for more information. Drop by the store 2066 University Ave. Berkeley, CA 94704. (510)548-2350.

Sponsored by the Oakland Asian Cultural Center and Eastwind Books of Berkeley
