

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

REVOLUTION MANIFESTO:

Understanding Marx and Lenin's Theory of Revolution.

This will be a discussion of the new book by The Party for Socialism and Liberation, led by Richard Becker. Along the lines of their last book, "Imperialism in the 21st Century," this one includes Lenin's "The State and Revolution" in its entirety, and several chapters discussing different aspects of the state. The chapter Becker wrote is titled, The Soviet Union: Why the workers state could not wither away. Other chapters include: What is the State; How the Ideas of "The State and Revolution" changed history; Living and cooperating without a state: Studying pre-class society; The U.S. state and the U.S. revolution; Cuba's state in revolution.

Sunday, August 30, 2015 - 10:30 am to 12:30 pm
6501 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland (just North of Alcatraz Ave.)

Seating is limited, so plan to come early. We start promptly.

FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to NPML

About Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
