How Can PROGRESSIVES Gain Leadership of the Democratic Party?

... and what can we do at the grassroots level to make that happen?

Featured speaker: BECKY BOND

The time is ripe for a new generation of progressive activists, inspired by the values and vision of Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren, to replace the current oligarchy of mainstream corporate Democrats.

Join us to explore how progressives can work during the Trump era, starting now, to take over the Democratic Parties of California and the country. What can we learn from experienced progressive activists? How can we start building a united coalition, not just to mount resistance to the new administration, but to effect long-term change? And where should we direct our efforts here in the Bay Area?
