Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

KOREA ON THE BRINK? PERSPECTIVES ON THE KOREA CRISIS.

US/Korea relations are now on the brink of open conflict, "Two trains headed for a collision." This presentation will look at the situation from a historical and global geopolitical perspective, and evaluate possibilities for both peace and war, as South Korea transitions to a new leader, North Korea persists in keeping its arsenal, and the US pendulates from "Strategic Patience" to "Tactical Impatience" and "Deadly Bluster." Speaker is a Visiting Scholar and Journalist on Korea.

About Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
