

On February 10, 2004, Kevin Cooper came within minutes of being executed by the state of California for a crime he did not commit.

On February 10, 2018, hear from Kevin as he calls in from death row to talk about his case, the barbarism of the death penalty, the racism of California's justice system, and the agony of being innocent on death row.

March 2018 will mark two years since Kevin's petition for clemency hit Governor Brown's desk. It's long past time for the Governor to take action.

Free Kevin Cooper!

Since 1973
155 people sentenced to death in the United States have been exonerated.

Several innocent people have been executed.

Live From Death Row: A Conversation with Kevin Cooper

Saturday
February 10th
2:00 to 3:30pm

SF Public Library
Koret Auditorium
100 Larkin Street

Presented by the Justice Committee of Democratic Socialists of America
San Francisco
Justice@dsasf.org

