

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY, 2018: #METOO WORLD-WIDE AND ACROSS SOCIETIES, FROM HOLLYWOOD TO PRISONS IN THE U.S.

Whether in Iran demonstrating against the compulsion to wear head scarves, or in Poland threatening the regime posed to pass the most draconian abortion law, or in the U.S. leading the largest opposition to Trump and Trumpism, women's sustained actions strive to bring about a new world. Every aspect of women's struggle is reflected and deepened in the experiences and ideas of women prisoners. Does Marx's view that the man/woman relation is the most fundamental speak to today's reality?

Speaker will be Urszula Wislanka, Marxist Humanist activist with California Coalition for Women Prisoners and Pelican Bay Hunger Strike Support Coalition.

Sun, April 8, 2018 – 10:30am-12:30pm
6501 Telegraph Ave, Oakland (just North of Alcatraz Ave.)

Seating is limited, so plan to come early. We start promptly.
FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to NPML

About Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
