

CITIES for the PEOPLE

How progressives in San Francisco and Barcelona are promoting reforms to benefit low- and middle-income residents

PLUS Mayoral Candidate Amy Farah Weiss presents "A To-Do list for San Francisco's next Mayor"

Competing San Francisco Propositions C and D propose additional taxes on commercial rental property, but for competing purposes: child care and education (Prop C) vs. housing and homelessness services (Prop. D). Sandee Blechman, Executive Director of the Children's Council of San Francisco, and Anthony Rodriguez, outreach coordinator of the "Yes on D" campaign, will present arguments in favor of the respective ballot measures.

In a world where capitalist globalization is increasing its control over the lives of ordinary people, Barcelona is the great exception that could be a model for progressives everywhere. In 2014, the popular feminist-led movement, "Barcelona en Comú" (Barcelona in Common) took power and began an ambitious program of reforming the local institutions and creating a thriving Peace Economy.

This forum will feature a report and slide show by Shirley Golub, vice-chair and secretary of PDA-San Francisco (and co-founder of the new PAC PDA-CA), who recently visited Barcelona with CodePink.

THURSDAY, MAY 24 • 7PM

San Francisco Unitarian Universalist Center. Chapel

1187 Franklin Street (corner Geary Blvd.), San Francisco

Wheelchair accessible • Snacks and beverages served

Sponsored by San Francisco Progressive Democrats of America (www.facebook.com/PDASanFrancisco/)