

Lance Canales and the Flood Featured at CVPPAC Fall Fund-Raiser

Saturday, August 25

6661 N Forkner
Fresno
5 - 7 p.m.

Lance Canales and the Flood will make you glad you are a progressive and came to the CVPPAC fall fund-raiser. The band is a roots/blues-influenced Americana trio from California's breadbasket, where Canales lived the life that so many songs have been written about since the birth of roots music—hard labor, one-room shacks and taunting ghosts whispering of a better life. Canales' guttural vocals combine a hard-edged storytelling approach beneath a stripped down, foot-stomping, acoustic instrumentation.

In addition to the musical entertainment, there will be candidates endorsed by the CVPPAC you can talk to and speakers who will tell us how to get progressives elected this November. This event will be held in the beautiful Wolk Garden located in Fresno at 6661 N. Forkner Ave. (north of Sierra between West & Van Ness Avenues). This fund-raiser is free to current CVPPAC members (can join/renew @ door) and $25 for guests.
